Beginning in Naples, Italy, at the turn of the 19th Century, the Aletto family has continued their tradition of jewelry making and craftsmanship for more than 130 years.

The Aletto family's signature sophistication and craftsmanship is showcased in each piece they create in their South Florida boutique. It is there that some of the world's most spectacular gold and gemstone pieces are born, including modern interpretations of classic design, collections of precious stones and other timeless treasures.
